Papakura Panui Term 2 – Week 7 2017

Dear Parents and Caregivers,

Greetings, Kia ora, Talofa lava, Malo e lelei, Kia orana, Fakaalofa lahi atu, Namaste!

We are more than half way through the term and what a busy term we are having! Our celebration of Samoan Language Week was a very happy time of acknowledging our significant Samoan presence in our school. Valuing culture is an important part of our school life. Our new student Council - Te Kaunihera a Akonga, has identified the celebration of diversity as something we do value deeply - the 30 students who make up this representative voice for the students in our school are currently having their say about our school and its future, and who better to be doing this than our students. These students create a sense of pride and provide a strong message of hope for our school and its future.

John Rohs, Principal

We were delighted to be able to acknowledge and welcome three new local Principals (featured above) who will contribute so much to the life of our community.
